Numb. 8838.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 4, to Saturday April 8, 1749.

Leiceſter Houſe, April 5.

THIS Day the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council Men of the City of London, waited on their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, to congratulate them on the Birth of a Princeſs; and being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Chandos, Richard Adams, Eſq; their Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Speech.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſſes,

WE the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council Men of the City of London, beg Leave to attend your Royal Highneſſes, to expreſs our ſincereſt Joy on the Increaſe of his Majeſty's Family, by the Birth of a Princeſs, and on the happy Recovery of your Royal Highneſs.

May this Princeſs, formed by his Majeſty's and your bright Example, become the Delight of his Majeſty and your Royal Highneſſes. May ſhe ſtudy to imitate the Piety and Virtues of her Royal Progenitors, and long live to experience your Royal Highneſſes tender Love and Affection for her.

To which his Royal Highneſs return'd the following Anſwer.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

I Return you my Thanks, and thoſe of the Princeſs, for this new Inſtance of your Duty to the King, and Regard to us.

The Love you have for my Children is the greateſt Joy to me. May it encreaſe; and may they always deſerve it, by their conſtant Adherence to the Laws and Liberties of the Country they have had the Happineſs to be born in, and by never forgetting that great Rule, that their Intereſt muſt always be the ſame with that of this brave and free People.

The City may always depend on my hearty good Wiſhes for the Welfare of their Trade and their Proſperity.

(Price Four-pence.)

Whitehall, April 7, 1749.

NOtice is hereby given, that the Books which are now open at London, Portſmouth, and Plymouth, for receiving the Names of ſuch Officers and private Men lately diſcharged the Land and Sea Service, Artificers, &c. as are deſirous of ſettling in his Majeſty's Province of Nova Scotia, upon the Encouragement offered for that Purpoſe, will remain open until Tueſday next, the 11th Inſtant, after which no Perſon will be admitted.

And the ſeveral Commiſſion Officers of the Land and Sea Service, and Surgeons, who have entred their Names upon the Encouragement offered by his Majeſty, are hereby notified to repair to the Office of the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, Whitehall, on Tueſday next, the 11th Inſtant, where they will receive Orders for being admitted with their Families and and Effects into the reſpective Tranſports wherein they are to embark. And all other Perſons who have in the like Manner enter'd their Names, are to repair to the ſaid Office for the like Purpoſe upon Wedneſday the 12th Inſtant, and the three following Days; and all Perſons who are to embark in the River of Thames, are required to hold themſelves in Readineſs to depart before the 20th Inſtant, and to attend the publick Notice that will be given of the particular Days when they are to repair to the Tower Wharf, to be carried from thence to the Ships they are to go on board.

That a Ship or Ships will be ready on or before the 25th Inſtant at Portſmouth, to receive on board ſuch Perſons as have entered their Names with the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy at that Place and Plymouth.

By Order of the Right Hononrable the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, Thos. Hill, Secretary.

Whitehall, March 28, 1749.

Whereas it has been repreſented to his Majeſty by John Meech, Sydenham Williams, and William Richards, Eſqrs. three of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Dorſet, That on Monday the 20th of this Inſtant March, an anonymous Letter, directed To Will. Templeman, Dorcheſter, Clerk of the Peace of the County of Dorſet, was drop'd, and taken up near the South Gate of the ſaid Town, threatening to murder him the ſaid William Templeman, and to fire the Houſes of the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, in Caſe any farther Proceedings were carried on by them againſt the Perſons concerned in Plundering and Carrying away the Cargo and Effects of a Dutch Ship, lately ſtranded on Portland-Beach in that County; His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in writing the ſaid Letter, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a farther Encouragement, his Majeſty is pleaſed to promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to any Perſon who ſhall make ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Whitehall, March 30, 1749.

Whereas it has been repreſented to the King, That on Wedneſday the firſt Day of this Inſtant March, the Warehouſe of Meſſ. Fullagar and Todd, at the Golden Ball, Billingſgate, was broke open in the Night by one or more Perſons, and many Goods, to a large Value, taken thereout; His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons who committed the above mentioned Robbery, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders, who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he, ſhe or they, or any of them, be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BEDFORD.

And as a farther Encouragement for the making ſuch Diſcovery, the ſaid Meſſ. Fullagar and Todd do hereby promiſe a Reward of Twenty Pounds, to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall apprehend or take any one or more of the Perſons concerned in the above Robbery, to be paid upon the Conviction of the ſaid Offenders, or any one or more of them: Or whoever will diſcover where the ſaid Goods are lodged, ſo that they may be had again, ſhall have the like Reward of Twenty Pounds, and ſo in Proportion for any Part of them.

For Partner and Self,
Stephen Todd.

Tower, March 27, 1749.

THE Treaſurer of His Majeſty's Ordnance hereby gives Notice, That by a Reſolution of the Honourable the Houſe of Commons, of the 21ſt Day of March 1748, All Perſons who ſhall be intereſted in, or intitled unto any Debentures payable out of His Majeſty's Office of Ordnance, which were dated on or before the 31ſt of December 1748, who ſhall, on or before the 20th Day of April next, carry the ſame to the Treaſurer of His Majeſty's Office of Ordnance, to be certified by him to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, ſhall be intitled unto and have an Annuity for the Principal and Intereſt due on the ſaid Debentures, after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to commence from the 25th Day of March 1749, payable Half Yearly: The ſaid Annuity to be charged upon the Sinking Fund, and to be transferable at the Bank of England until redeemed by Parliament.

John Plumptre.

Treaſury Office,

Broad-ſtreet, March 24, 1748.

THE Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Navy hereby gives Notice, that purſuant to a Reſolution of the Honourable the Houſe of Commons of Tueſday the 21ſt Inſtant, all Perſons who ſhall be intereſted in, or intitled unto, any Bill or Bills payable in Courſe, out of his Majeſty's Offices of the Navy or Victualling, or for Tranſports, which were made out on or before the 31ſt Day of December 1748, and who ſhall, on or before the 20th Day of April next, bring the ſame into his Office in Broad Street to be mark'd and certified to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, ſhall be entitled unto, and have an Annuity for the Principal and Intereſt due on the ſaid Bills, after the Rate of 4 l. per Cent. per Annum, to commence from the 25th Day of this Inſtant March, payable half yearly: The ſaid Annuity to be charg'd upon the Sinking Fund, and to be transferrable at the Bank of England, until redeem'd by Parliament.

George Dodington.

London, Jan. 16, 1748.

General-Poſt-Office.

Whereas the Poſt-Boy bringing the Swaffham Mail, from that Town to Thetford, on Saturday laſt, the 14th Inſtant, was attacked on the Highway, at a Place called Bodney, between Swaffham and Thetford, in the County of Norfolk, by two Highwaymen on Horſeback, who who carried off the Letters contained in the Rougham, Holkham, Wells and Fakenham Bags, and also the Letters from several other Towns and Places in the Thetford Branch: The Persons who committed this Robbery are described to be both stout Men, and one of them was mounted on a light grey Horse, and the other on a Brown one. He on the Grey Horse was dressed in a Gold-laced light colour'd Waistcoat with a Great Coat over the same, and he on the Brown one, wore a compleat Soldier's Dress, with Gold Button Holes.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Persons, or either of them who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person, or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby the Persons, or either of them, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of both, or either of the said Robbers, be intituled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

London, Dec. 2, 1748.

General Post-Office.

Whereas the Post-Boy, bringing the West Mail from Andover to Basingstoke, was last Night, between the Hours of Seven and Eight, attacked on the Highway, about a Quarter of a Mile on this Side of a Place called Clarken Green, which is near Four Miles distant from Basingstoke in the County of Southampton, by a single Highwayman, who carried off the Letters contained in the following Bags, viz. The two Exeter Bags, Shaftsbury, Ashburton, Truro, Barnstaple, Launceston, Weymouth, Camelford, Bodmin, Totnes, Ilchester, Dorchester, Somerton, Yeovil, and Blandford.

This is to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, of whom no particular Description is as yet come to Hand, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Victualling-Office, March 30, 1749.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Wednesday the 14th Day of June next, they will be ready to receive Proposals from such Person as may be willing to undertake the furnishing his Majesty's Ships and Vessels that may touch at Gibraltar, with Wine and other Species of Sea Provisions, and to hire his Majesty's Victualling-Office and Storehouses at the said Port, during the Time that the Contract, which may happen to be made for the Supplying the Provisions, shall last.

And on the same Day the said Commissioners will be also ready to receive Proposals for the Supplying his Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the said Place for Wine only. And a Part of the Store-Room belonging to his Majesty, will be let for the Stowage of that Species.

The Rent that in both Cases is fixed on the Victualling Premisses, may be seen with the other Conditions of the Contracts, at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling-Office, London.

Navy Office, April 4, 1749.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Thursday the 13th Instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Morning, they will expose to Sale at this Office, the Hulls of his Majesty's Ships, Feversham, Burthen 689 Tons, Lyz of 336 Tons, and Scarborough of 442 Tons, together with their Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Pumps, &c. as they now lye at his Majesty's Yard at Woolwich, where they may be viewed by such Persons as are inclinable to attend the said Sale and bid for them; and as a Deposit of 25 l. per Cent, or in Proportion thereto, is to be made by the Persons who shall purchase the said Ships and Particulars, all Persons who shall attend the said Sale, are to take Notice thereof, and come prepared for that Purpose; and unless the Ships so purchased shall be paid for and taken away at the End of Forty Days after the Day of Sale, the Deposit shall be forfeited, and become the Property of the Crown.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship Ambuscade, Capt. Richard Gwynn, Commander, who were on Board of her at the taking the Ships Venus and Anna Maria, two French Prizes, that the Residue of the said Prizes will be paid at the King's Arms Tavern in Lombard-street, on Thursday the 25th of May, 1749. The Recalls to be at the Old South-Sea-House in Broad-street, the first Thursday in every Month for three Years afterwards.
